"TEST PATTERN"

Foreword

We, the editors, have chosen TELEVISION as our theme for the 1956 edition of the TIGER ROAR, so pull up a chair and turn on your own private set as you view the past year in picture. We hope that this edition will be one that will always hold many wonderful adventures for you. Later on as you tend to forget about your school life, we hope that this edition of the TIGER ROAR will focus back in your mind, that you will pick it up, open the covers and tune in all the experiences you had at MOUNT PLEASANT HIGH SCHOOL.

We have considered it a privilege and an honor to work on this annual and sincerely hope it meets with your approval.

We now proudly present you with the ninth edition of THE TIGER ROAR and hope that you enjoy it as much as we enjoyed preparing it.

Our School

OUR PRAYER

Almighty God, Thou who art the source of all wisdom and understanding, and the light that removes the shadows from our minds, we thank Thee for the opportunity to increase our knowledge through our studies.

Grant unto us, Oh Lord, minds that will ever be open to the truth and instill in us the courage to follow the truth wherever it may lead. Make us humble that we might learn from those who are held in low esteem by the world and fill us with endurance that we might follow those who would lead us to higher truth and ideas. Above all, our Father, give us the love of Thy Son that we may ever use our knowledge to lift men up rather than add to their burdens. Finally, make us the kind of men and women who will use our knowledge to lead others to Him who is the Truth, the Way, and the Life.

Through Jesus Christ Our Lord, AMEN.

MEDITATION

Dedication

To MR. RALPH DONALD PLATTE, our guidance director, whom we love and respect for his eagerness to help us, his unlimited support of our school, his friendliness, his code of honor, and his ability to inspire, we, the seniors of nineteen hundred fifty-six, with affection and appreciation dedicate this, the ninth edition of THE TIGER ROAR.

CLASS POEM

" A SENIOR'S DREAM "

Comes Graduation all too soon,
Fulfilling a Senior's dream.
We set a goal we strived to reach
By hard work and high ambition.
Long after we've bid adieu
to these halls,
Memories'll replace
our high school dreams;
Together we've studied,
and laughed and played.
Formed beautiful friendships,
shared joy and sorrow;
Our teachers stood by
and guided us
In what we chose or what befell us.
As now we leave our honored place
To be filled by others tomorrow
Our eyes become misty, and our hearts become sad;
Our dream has come true,
Too soon----------Too soon.

CLASS PROPHECY
"WHAT'S MY LINE"

As I look at this tele-time machine before me, and I begin to turn the dial to 1956, I am filled with excitement. I wonder what my classmates of the Senior Class of '56 are doing now in the year of 1966.

Suddenly the picture comes into focus and I see Henry Fisher working over pages of figures. Then I understand, for Henry has dedicated his mind to Science and it is through his invention that I am able to take a peek into the lives of my former classmates.

Now the picture is changing and I see a group of women on the street. Why I know them! It's Margie Weaver, Shelby Dunlap, and Libby Vandenburg. They were married soon after school was out. Oh, they are talking to Ernestine Lowder, the famous movie star.

Goodness, what a beautiful hospital! The plaque had the builders' names on it. Those engineers are none other than Tommy Krimminger and Eddie Foil. Those nurses admiring it are Joyce Miller, Sara Fink, and Reba Shinn.

Patsy Hahn is the owner of the next building, "Pat's School of Dancing." She and Ned Cline have teamed up and are now touring the more important countries as professionals. Last week they won the World's Championship, sponsored by James Moser, multi-millionaire jeweler.

This big building is Whitaker Moose's enterprise. He took over his father's drug store. That man getting the prescription is Col. Ted Hagler, who is home on furlough from the Army. He's making it a career. Ted said he saw Larry Cline, Gene Yarborough, and Kay Stoner in Washington last and tells me they have made quite a name for themselves in government work. Larry is personnel manager while Kay is the President's secretary, and Gene, a head typist.

The Mount Pleasant High School Faculty must be having a meeting so let's peek and see what's going on. Why, there are Gene Burris, head football coach; Kenneth Sifford, Agriculture teacher; Sandra Burris, Dorothy Ridenhour, Betsy Bost, Doris Talley, and Betty Cochran, all elementary teachers. I should have entered the teaching profession.

This picture is coming from Paris---It's so dim---now I can make it out. Lucille Ritchie, the internationally known modelling Joyce Eagle's newest creation. Goodness, what a machine! This picture is coming from Tennessee. It's Wayne Isenhour sitting behind a desk taking life easy. His title is head correspondent for Worldwide Trucking Center. Surely---but it is---Gene Faggart is Wayne's assistant.

The picture is turning toward rolling countryside now. There's Ned Hudson, Cabarrus County Farm Agent, talking to Jim Fisher, Johnny Humphrey, Gene Earnhardt, Giles Misenheimer, and Marvin Bost. He's giving them advice on how to make their farms produce more.

What's this! It's Jim Allman testing his stock car. I understand he won the North Carolina Championship sponsored by Robert Shinn, American's foremost promoter. This machine certainly can cover the sports world wonderfully. There are Ted Auten, Junior Rinehardt, and Edward Lockhart, playing baseball for the N. Y. Yankees. From what I read in the newspapers they have had a very successful season.

Well, the machine just turned off so I'd better be getting back to the office. My, how fast lunch hour passes.

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1952, seventy ambitious freshmen took a long-awaited step into high school.

Our class advisors were Miss Elizabeth Grimsley, Mr. Charles Harrill, and Mr. Harry Jenkins.

We chose for our officers Joyce Eagle, President; Tommy Krimminger, Vice-President; and Whitaker Moose, Secretary and Treasurer.

Our first class party was a square dance held in the Lions' Hut. Since it was a Christmas party, we had fun exchanging gifts. A swimming party and picnic at Mirror Lake brought a successful year to a close.

As seventy sophomores entered Mt. Pleasant in the fall of 1953, we realized that half of our high school life would be over after this year; so we held our heads high with determination.

Mrs. Luther Adams and Mr. Roy Webster were our advisors.

The class chose Tommy Krimminger as President; Whitaker Moose, Vice-President; Henry Fisher, Secretary; and Jimmy Fisher, Treasurer.

At our first sophomore party we enjoyed a square dance in the school auditorium. We also had a skating party at the close of school.

Summer vacation was a fast one, and forty-seven juniors returned to begin a year that will always be remembered as a most successful year.

Our class advisors were Miss Rosa James and Mrs. Carolyn Mills Smith.

Our class officers were Tommy Krimminger, President; James Moser, Vice-President; Joyce Eagle, Secretary; Sandra Burris, Treasurer; and Doris Talley, Reporter.

For our Junior and Senior years, yellow and white were chosen as class colors along with the yellow rose as class flower. Our motto was "Forward ever, backward never."

A three-act comedy entitled, "The Professor Proposes", was presented as our Junior Play. The cast included Joyce Eagle, Doris Talley, Gene Earnhardt, Ned Cline, Lucile Ritchie, Dot Ridenhour, Whit Moose, James Moser, Sandra Burris, Joyce Miller, and Patsy Hahn. The play was directed by Mrs. Carolyn Mills Smith.

A beautiful Junior-Senior banquet was held at Hotel Concord with "Maypole" as our theme, supervised by Miss James. The banquet was financed by the selling of magazines, a project which was very successful as it proved a new goal for the school.

We smiled as the last bell for the year rang, regretting that a busy and happy year was behind us.

We opened our senior year with Miss Madge Sowell and Mrs. Carolyn Mills Smith as our advisors.

Our class officers were James Moser, President; Tommy Krimminger, Vice-President; Joyce Eagle, Secretary; and Henry Fisher, Treasurer.

A delightful three-act comedy entitled "Our Gal Sal" was directed by our advisors. The cast included Sandra Burris, Ned Cline, Doris Talley, Betsy Bost, Dot Ridenhour, Lucile Ritchie, Ted Auten, Harold Cline, and Betty Cochran.

In April, we took a five-day trip to Washington. Forty of us and our advisors visited many interesting places and had an enjoyable trip.

This twelfth year has passed quickly. We have terminated our high school studies and have closed our books. However, only now are we ready for commencement. We have reached one goal; now we set another. The book of Life is opening before us, and we are beginning to realize that Life challenges us.

EVERYDAY LIFE WITH A SENIOR

OUR LIFE"

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

ARTICLE I: We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty-six being of sound judgement, do declare this to be our last will and testament.
ARTICLE II: To Mr. Adams and our faculty, we leave our sincere thanks for all the helpful advice and guidance they so willingly gave us, and to our parents, our appreciation for making our education possible.
ARTICLE III: To the underclassmen we leave our dignity as Seniors.

Jimmy Allman gladly leaves his textbooks to any poor junior and his love for cars to Jerry Tucker. Ted Auten leaves his ability to flatter girls to Dan Culp and his athletic success to James Brooks. Ned Blackwelder leaves his position of short stop on the baseball team to Allen Moose and his textbooks to any poor underclassman. Betsy Bost leaves her flag twirler position to Bonnie Keziah and her smile to Jessie Fisher. Marvin Bost leaves his friendly manner to Buddy Lomax and his alertness to Alice Bost. Gene Burris leaves his good times at Mount Pleasant to Larry Cauble and his football uniform to Lannie Harwood. Sandra Burris leaves her position as bell-ringer to Kay Fink and her love for dramatics to Paula Foil. Harold Cline leaves his title of Editor of the school paper to Jane Stallings and his position as captain of the basketball team to Joe Mills. Larry Cline leaves his interest in agriculture to Larry Miller and his grades to his teachers. Ned Cline leaves his big smile to Bobby Hammill and his geography book to any underclassman. Betty Cochran leaves her friendly smile to Nancy Greene and her sweet disposition to Butch Barringer. Shelby Dunlap leaves her ability to get a husband to anyone who needs it and her sweet manner to Peggy Ballard. Joyce Eagle leaves her title of Miss Hi Miss to Sue Foil and her blond hair to Thyra Penninger. Gene Earnhardt leaves bus No. 6 to Alvin Yorke and his love for electronics to George Fisher. Gene Faggart leaves his cap and gown to any rising senior and his friendly smile to Myron Hatley. Sara Fink leaves her good grades to her brother Harry and her sweet personality to Shelbia Manus. Henry Fisher leaves his "straight A's" to Sue Cline and his friendliness to Treccia Ward. Jimmy Fisher leaves his co-captain position on the football team to Bob Burris and his job as the driver of the "Blue Comet" to Buddy Fisher. Eddie Foil leaves his way with the women to Bob Brooks and his good times to Frances Petrea. Shirley Gray leaves her pleasing smile to Joann Tucker and her long hair to Barbara Carpenter. Ted Hagler leaves his love for the out-of-doors to Bobby Byrd and his ability to skip class to Clyde Drye. Patsy Hahn leaves her musical talent to Dianne Mullis and her ability to get a boy friend to anyone who needs it. Peggy Henley leaves her sweet manner to Audrey Walker and her lovely hands to Barbara Brawley. Ned Hudson leaves his intelligence to Glenn Rimer and his memories of ole Mt. Pleasant to Joyce Sides. Johnny Humphrey leaves his books to Dicky Mills and his agriculture jacket to any new agriculture student. Wayne Isenhour leaves his crew cut to Poe Lowder and his hearty laugh to Margaret Ann Rhinehardt. Thomas Krimminger leaves his "Best Defensive Trophy" to Jimmy Benton and his leadership to Florence Hahn. Edward Lockhart leaves his curve ball to the next pitcher on the baseball team and his A's on conduct, which he doesn't have, to Joe Mills. Ernestine Lowder leaves her neat appearance to Ethelyn Smith and her friendliness to Gail Faggart. Joyce Miller leaves her friendly manner to Frances Eudy and her studious ways to Jane Culp. Giles Misenheimer leaves his bus No. 52 to a prospective driver and his sense of humor to Worth Barbee. Aaron Misenheimer leaves his bus No. 25 to anyone who can handle it and his grades to Don Burris. Whit Moose leaves his position as guard on the football team to Perk Morris and his quick wit to Junior Stancil. James Moser leaves his office as President of the Senior Class to Libby Herion and his Beta Club pin to Becky Park. Dot Ridenhour leaves her superlative of "Best All Around" to Shirley Auten and her dark hair to Carol White. Junior Rhinehardt leaves his history medal to any deserving Junior and his catcher's mitt to the next catcher on the baseball team. Lucile Ritchie leaves her sparkling personality to Joyce Moser and her fun-loving ways to Mary Ann Fisher. Robert Safrit leaves his A model to the Drivers Training Class and his big grin to Cora Boger. Reba Shinn leaves her artistic ability to Mike Shinn and her dainty statue to Betty Bridges. Robert Shinn leaves his pink Ford to anyone who needs a car and his neatness to Archie Miller. Kenneth Sifford leaves his origination to Poe Lowder and his trig book to Luther de Diego. Kay Stoner leaves her pleasing personality to Frances Brooks and her position on the paper staff to Wilson Baucom. Doris Talley leaves her position as Editor-in-chief of the Tiger Roar to Harold Moser and her excellent grades to Kay Lowder. Joe Troutman leaves his interest in English to Voncille Yost and his musical talent to Marilyn Safrit. Elizabeth Vandenburg leaves her luck on getting her man to Violet Henley and her long red hair to Barbara Allman. Margie Weaver leaves her tactfulness to Gail Whitley and her books to anyone who wants them. Gene Yarborough leaves his musical talent to anyone who doesn't have an ear for music and his crazy haircut to anyone with long hair.

SCHOOL SONG

Oh, when Mount Pleasant High School falls in line,
We're going to beat our rivals every time.
We're going to sing and shout and make some noise
Because our High School's filled with loyal girls and boys.
So come on rah, rah, rah, Mount Pleasant High
We're going to pledge ourselves to do or die.
We're going to sing our praises to the sky, by and by,
Mount Pleasant is the school for me.

Ray,

Howdy Ray Allman! It's been great being in school with you this year. Remember home room period and please don't forget being social chairman club. We'll glad to be getting out pretty soon, aren't you?

Ray, we really need you at church and you need God anyway! Don't let Christ down. I hope you attend Church every Friday night and get active this summer.

Be good and get ready to be a preacher next year! There work out it's necessary! Love and best wishes, Ray.
